Resolution No. _____

A23. TELEPHONE ANSWERING SERVICE

23.3 SPECIAL CONDITIONS

- A. Telephone Answering Service consists of telephone answering facilities and services, furnished in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule, to customers engaged in the telephone answering service business and to other customers of telephone service who desire service arrangements whereby their incoming calls may be answered by a customer engaged in the telephone answering service business.
- B. A person will be considered to be engaged in the telephone answering service business when ten or more off-premises extension station line services of one or more different customers are terminated in one or more adjoining rooms on premises of said person.
- C. For the purpose of this Schedule the customer is the individual or concern furnishing the Telephone Answering Service and the client is the individual or concern who receives Telephone Answering Service from the customer.
- D. Extension lines terminated on the telephone answering equipment will be furnished only in connection with the client's business or residence individual line service.
- E. Charges for extension lines will be included in the client's bill for primary service. Other charges will be billed to the customer offering Telephone Answering Service.
- F. Telephone Answering Service is furnished for the sole purpose of enabling the customer of the Telephone Answering Service to answer the client's incoming calls. Telephone Answering Service is not offered for:
 - 1. Outgoing exchange or toll calls.
 - 2. Intercommunication between the client and the customer over the client's line terminating on the telephone answering equipment.
 - 3. Connections between the client's line terminating on the telephone answering equipment and a central office line or other line through the telephone answering equipment.
- G. When for any reason service is discontinued to the customer, all other telephone service rendered by the customer to clients will also be discontinued. If a client's primary service is discontinued, the extension line service to the telephone answering equipment will also be discontinued.
